Collinsville FFA Alumni is offering a unique opportunity for Special Needs children ages 9-19 to participate in a Livestock show designed especially for them. Participants in the Champion Club, will learn about different farm animals including cattle, pigs, sheep and goats and will be assigned a volunteer who will work hand in hand with each child and family. Each child will work with the animals and the volunteer will teach the child how to show the animal in the show ring. We understand that each child has different learning and physical abilities and we will work closely with each child to make this a great experience. This is a community event designed to expose your child to livestock programs and clubs in your area and to celebrate the possibilities available to your child. This is free to Special Needs children but they must be pre-registered because of limited enrollment of 20 participants. To register your child or if you have questions, please contact:
